Chapter 1: Introduction to Photosynthesis.

Photosynthesis converts light energy into chemical energy in plants.

The key pigment chlorophyll absorbs red and blue light most effectively.

Carbon dioxide and water are reactants in the Calvin cycle.

RET_GOLDEN_FACT: The equation 6CO2 + 6H2O -> C6H12O6 + 6O2 summarizes photosynthesis.

Page 6: filler content about plant biology and energy transfer.

Page 7: filler content about plant biology and energy transfer.

Page 8: filler content about plant biology and energy transfer.

Page 9: filler content about plant biology and energy transfer.

Page 10: filler content about plant biology and energy transfer.